SINGLES – Spiderbait finally hit the top spot with Black Betty, giving the band their first ever #1 hit. They have steadily climbed the chart since debuting at #12 ten weeks ago and in doing so become the first local rock release since Killing Heidi's Mascara to make it to #1.

No.10 THE REASON – Hoobastank. Hoobastank have appeared on the ARIA single Top 100 on two previous occasions with nothing like the impact of this, their latest single. The title track from their second long play release has fared significantly better than both Running Away (#83 Jul '02) and Crawling In The Dark (#61 Apr '02).

No.13 SUMMER SUNSHINE – The Corrs. The brand new single from the Corrs gives them their 8th Top 40 single and proves they certainly haven't lost their Australian fan base. Their biggest hit was the Platinum accredited Breathless (#7 Aug '00) but also had Top 20 hits with Runaway (#10 May '96) and Forgiven Not Forgotten (#15 Jul '96).

No.15 SWAY – Michael Buble. This is the second single from the ever so smooth Michael Buble who recently charmed audiences here in Australia and proved a mothers day favourite when his album hit the #1 spot 2 weeks ago. Sway is his best effort on the single chart, with his previous Christmas single, Let It Snow, peaking at #25.

No.23 SUNNY – Boogie Pimps. The latest offering from that German dance duo known as the Boogie Pimps is a reworking of the Boney M hit Sunny, originally released back in the 70's. Sunny has matched the debut position their previous single, Someone To Love which went on to peak at #10 (Mar '04).

No.27 GET LOW – Lil Jon. The producer on the massive Usher hit Yeah is a huge star in his own right in the US. This single, featuring the East Side Boyz, peaked at #2 in the US and helped the album, Kings Of Crunk to ship platinum.

No.30 WANNA GET TO KNOW YOU – G-Unit. G-Unit released their debut album, Beg For Mercy, late last year and followed it up with the first single Stunt 101 in January 04. Helped by the vocal talents of Fat Joe, Wanna Get To Know You gives G-Unit their best position to date on the ARIA singles chart.

No.36 IN MY ROOM – Lethbridge. Yet another byproduct of Australian Idol is Lethbridge, a urban/hip-hop 4 piece from Brisbane comprising of Idol final 12 star Levi Kereama and his 3 older brothers.

No.64 CHA CHA SLIDE – DJ Casper. In the tradition of the Macarena, the Ketchup Song and Y.M.C.A. comes the latest single with an associated dance routine. DJ Casper, a.k.a. Willie Perry is a Chicago based DJ/producer who first invented the Cha Cha Slide dance routine as a fitness exercise. Next came the record deal and the rest, as they say, is history.

No.68 REPTILLIA – The Strokes. This is The Strokes 1st single release off their 2nd album Room On Fire which debuted at #6 in October last year and achieved a gold accreditation. The Strokes were here not long ago on tour with the Big Day Out that saw a record breaking attendance to the event.

No.76 SAIL ON – Electric Mary. This is Melbourne based rock act Electric Mary's debut to the ARIA Charts. The new Aussie act are signed to new record label Big Records which is headed by former Zomba MD Paul Paoliello and Southern Sons ex band member turned engineer/producer Reggie Bowman.

No.81 YOUR GAME – Will Young. This is the UK idol's second single release in Australia, his first Leave Right Now peaking at #63 (Mar '04). Will is huge in the UK but has not, as yet, wowed Australian audiences.

No.85 SOMEWHERE ONLY WE KNOW – Keane. Keane are a 3 piece from the UK whose debut single has prompted comparisons to the likes of Coldplay and Travis. The distinguishing feature for this band is that the sound is wholly piano based; the band does not feature a guitarist. This is their debut release.

No.92 DON'T YOU FORGET ABOUT ME – White Spaces. White Spaces is a new studio collaboration from Italian dance outfit Phunk Investigation. Don't You Forget About Me is a remake of the Simple Minds classic (#6 May '85) and features vocals from the man himself, Jim Kerr.

ALBUMS – Another Aussie act enters the Top 10 this week with Eskimo Joe's new album, A Song Is A City, debuting at #2. Jet hold on to the #1 spot while Pete Murray drops to #5. After 54 weeks in the charts Evanescence's album, Fallen, rejoins the Top 10 at #7 while D12 continues to slide, dropping 6 spots.

No. 2 A SONG IS A CITY – Eskimo Joe. First formed in 1997 in Perth, Eskimo Joe's first gig was the National Campus Band Comp. First prize was a guest spot at the Brisbane Livid Festival in 1997. A Song Is A City is their 3rd and most successful album to date, with the previous two, Girl and Eskimo Joe, peaking at #29 and #94 respectively. They begin a national tour on the 26th May.

No. 11 A GRAND DON'T COME FOR FREE – The Streets. Birmingham 2-steppers, The Streets, lead a new generation of British rappers with their totally original style. A Grand Don't Come For Free is a concept album with a social commentary on English suburban life: watching football, drinking beer and holiday romances. The Streets' previous album, Original Pirate Material, peaked at #57.

No. 15 SO-CALLED CHAOS – Alanis Morissette. Her first album, Jagged Little Pill, held the #1 position for 10 weeks and remained in the Top 50 for 99 weeks. Supposed Former Infatuation Junkie, her 2nd album, peaked at #2, while Under Rug Swept was another pole position holder. Her latest album, So-Called Chaos, sees Alanis in a more positive state of my mind, with much of the new material inspired by her romance with Canadian actor Ryan Reynolds, who is perhaps best known as the title role of National Lampoon's Van Wilder.

No. 24 SPLIT THE DIFFERENCE – Gomez. Four albums, four Top 100s - little wonder that tickets that went on sale Monday morning (24/05), for Gomez's Australian tour were sold out for the Sydney show by 10 am, and Brisbane by 9am. Split the Difference, is the first album since guitarist/vocalist Ian Ball relocated to Los Angeles. Ian is also a regular on the Australian live circuit with his solo shows.

No. 32 NEW FOUND GLORY – Catalyst. Pop-punkers, New Found Glory, release their latest album Catalyst. Earlier album, Sticks and Stones, peaked at #33 with the track, Head on Collision, peaking at #83.

No. 42 BAPTISM – Lenny Kravitz. Is he cheating on Nicole? Dunno, but it's no rumour that Lenny's latest offering, Baptism, debuted at just above the halfway mark. To date he has racked up six Top 50 albums, including the #1, Are You Gonna Go My Way?, which spawned the #1 single of the same name. Did you know that his mum was actress Roxie Roker, best-known for her role as Helen Willis on the popular TV series The Jeffersons?

No. 57 ASSHOLE – Gene Simmons. Seems singing about one's back passage all but guarantees you a spot in the charts. Kiss frontman, Gene Simmons, takes a leaf out of Denis Leary's book with his latest album, Asshole. While Kiss has been a major performer in the charts, Simmons's solo career has not enjoyed the same success to date.

No. 64 YOU ARE THE QUARRY – Morrissey. Terminally melancholic, alternative crooner, Morrissey, delivers his new album, You Are The Quarry. He first established himself in the British indie band, The Smiths, with angst-ridden yet wry songs such as, Girlfriend in a Coma and Unhappy Birthday. He began his solo career in 1987 and has since had six singles and seven albums in the Top 100.

No. 79 HURT NO MORE – Mario Winans. A contributor to the contemporary gospel group, The Winans, Mario soon found his secular way to working with such artists as R. Kelly, Puff Daddy and Pebbles. Although I Don't Wanna Know charted in the Top 5 of Billboard's Top 100, Hurt No More is his first release to chart in Australia.

No. 88 SCISSOR SISTERS – Scissor Sisters. The Scissor Sisters combine elements of burlesque, drag and glam-rock with rock/pop not dissimilar to Bowie and musical mentor, Elton John, who they'll be supporting later this year in the UK. After one single release, Comfortably Numb, they now release their first, self-titled album. The name? A euphemism for lesbianism.

No. 89 THE REASON – Hoobastank. This is Hoobastank's second album release in Australia. The first, self-titled album peaked at #67 and generated two Top 100 singles. Hoobastank was formed in L.A. in '94 and they went to school with the members of Incubus.
